

Quinn

SOUTHERN REGIONAL
DEMOGRAPHIC GROUP

1981 Annual Meeting

Little Rock Hilton Inn
Little Rock, Arkansas
October 14-16, 1981

Southern Regional
Demographic Group

Officers, 1980-81

President

Thomas J. Espenshade, The Urban Institute

President-Elect and 1981 Program Chair

Anne S. Lee, Athens, Georgia

Vice President

Calvin L. Beale, U.S. Department of Agriculture

Secretary-Treasurer

William J. Serow, Florida State University

Members of the Board of Directors

Abbott L. Ferriss, Emory University
Larry H. Long, U.S. Bureau of the Census
Clifford H. Patrick, Social Security Administration
Ken E. Shin, University of South Carolina

Local Arrangements Chair

Forrest H. Pollard, University of Arkansas

Editor, SRDG Newsletter

Stanley K. Smith, University of Florida

Southern Regional Demographic Group
Little Rock Hilton Inn
October 14-16, 1981

Wednesday, October 14

Board of Directors Meeting, 2:00-5:30 p.m.

Cash Bar Reception, 7:00-9:30 p.m.

Thursday, October 15

Registration, 8:30 a.m.-4:30 p.m.

Session T1 International Demographic Comparisons
8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: James F. Spittler, U.S. Bureau of the Census

Papers:

International Variability in Childlessness
D. L. Poston and K. Trent
University of Texas at Austin

On Generalizing the Prevalence of Fertility Decline in Developing Countries

E. Jamison, U.S. Bureau of the Census

The Effects of Population Size: A Cross-National Study
G. Firebaugh, Vanderbilt University

Intermediate vs. Long Term Effects of Demographic Policy
Intervention on Income Distribution in Developing Countries
R. S. Moreland, Research Triangle Institute

Session T2 Mortality Trends and Differentials
8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: Robert L. Shiller, Birmingham Regional Health Systems
Agency

Papers:

Mortality Trends in the Non-Metropolitan South
H. I. Sauer, R. F. Stearley and C.A. Epple, Herb Sauer
Associates

Recent Trends in Mortality of U.S. Females
A. Ferriss, Emory University

Sex and Race Differentials in Mortality: Implications for Changing the Retirement Age
M. McMillan, Social Security Administration

Discussant: D. Burnham, National Center for Health Statistics

Session T3 Residential and Household Patterns
8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: John D. Reid, Howard University

Papers:

- Home Lending from an Ecological Perspective
L. G. Pol, R. F. Guy and A. J. Bush, Memphis State University
- Racial-Ethnic Composition and Residential Segregation in Large and Small Texas Cities in 1980
S-S. Hwang and S. H. Murdock, Texas A&M University
- Housing Constraint and Household Complexity in Metropolitan America: The Cases of the Black and Spanish-Surname Minorities
J. M. Inman and L. J. Krivo, University of Texas at Austin
- Changing Household Size in Oklahoma City, 1970-1980: Exploratory Findings and Research Agenda
J. L. Hickman and S. Self, Cameron University, and G. Dailey, City of Oklahoma City

Session T4 New Directions for Applied Demography
10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: Julie H. Martin, University of Virginia

Panel Members:

- G. Dailey, City of Oklahoma City
- N. W. Rives, University of Delaware
- A. D. Schmidley, C&P Telephone, Washington, DC
- P. R. Voss, University of Wisconsin - Madison

Session T5 Recent Trends in Population Redistribution
10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: Edward E. Cahill, University of Tennessee - Chattanooga

Papers:

- Migration to Cities and Suburbs: City Losses and Suburban Gains in the 1970s
C. J. Tucker, Winthrop College
- Black Suburbanization in the 1970s: An Early Analysis of 1980 Census Results
L. H. Long and D. DeAre, U.S. Bureau of the Census
- Effects of Inter-Stream Migrant Family Size Differentials on Central City - Suburb and Metropolitan-Nonmetropolitan Population Redistribution, 1965-1979
R. White, University of South Carolina
- The Nonmetropolitan Turnaround in the South: An Ecological Interpretation
M. T. Coleman and D. L. Poston, University of Texas at Austin

Session T6 Segregation and the Labor Force
10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: Joan M. Herold, University of South Carolina

Papers:

- The Excluded Ones: Males and Females in Small or Very Segregated Occupations
A.A. Kemp, University of New Orleans
- Economic Structure and the Female Labor Force Participation-

Fertility Relationship: Evidence from Sector-Specific, Nonrecursive Models

M. K. Falconer, Florida State University

Productivity and Female Labor: Evidence from the Manufacturing Sector

C. H. Wiswell and O. R. Galle, University of Texas at Austin

Racial Segregation in the Professions: Recent National Trends, 1968-1980

G. C. Johnson, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Discussant: P. England, University of Texas at Dallas

Session T7 Presidential Luncheon: "A Dialogue on U.S. Immigration and Refugee Policy and Its Impact on States"
12:15-2:00 p.m.

Presiding: Thomas J. Espenshade, The Urban Institute

Speakers:

- Donna Alvarado, U.S. Senate Subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Policy
- Jim Guy Tucker, former U.S. Congressman from Arkansas and former director, White House Conference on Families

Session T8 Plenary Symposium: Needed Demographic Research
2:15-4:45 p.m.

Chair: Anne S. Lee, Athens, Georgia

Participants:

- C. L. Beale, U.S. Department of Agriculture
- L. F. Bouvier, Population Reference Bureau
- G. K. Bowles, Bowles Demographic Research
- E. S. Lee, University of Georgia

Session T9 SRDG Annual Business Meeting
5:00-5:45 p.m.

Presiding: Thomas J. Espenshade, The Urban Institute

Friday, October 16

Southern Running Demographers Gathering,
7:00 a.m. - (Pacemaker: D. Poston)

Registration, 8:30 a.m.-noon

Session F1 Demographic Changes in Southern States
8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: Max Williams, University of Mississippi

Ballroom

Ballroom

Papers:

A Note on Population Changes in the 1970s
R. K. Hirzel, University of Maryland

Trends in the Relationship between Racial Composition and Racial Inequality in Mississippi
M. H. Clark, University of Mississippi and I. W. Eberstein, Florida State University

New Directions in Nonwhite Population Trends: Another Reversal of the Seventies
E. S. Bryant, Mississippi State University

Mississippi Cities and Towns: An Analysis of Population Trends by Size and County-Seat Status, 1940-1980
M. El-Attar, Mississippi State University

Discussant: L. G. Pol, Memphis State University

Session F2 Demography Abroad 8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: Ken Shin, University of South Carolina

Papers:

Population History of Dubrovnik, Yugoslavia 1673-1971
D. Jedlicka, University of Georgia

The Relationship between Internal Migration and Fertility in Mexico
O. Wolowyna and A. Cross, University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and L. Nunez Fernandez, Instituto Mexicano del Seguro Social

Contraception, Marital Fertility, and Breastfeeding in the Yemen Arab Republic
H. I. Goldberg, Centers for Disease Control

Income and Earning Structure in the Informal Sector: The Potential for Reducing Poverty in Ghana
K. A. Twum-Baah, Carolina Population Center

Session F3 Methodological Problems and Geographic Classes 8:45-10:15 a.m.

Chair: Sam T. Davis, U.S. Bureau of the Census

Papers:

Nonmetropolitan RNF Differentiation
B. G. Newman, Oak Ridge National Laboratory

Some Effects of Changing Metropolitan Definitions
R. L. Forstall, U.S. Bureau of the Census

Defining SMSA Sub-Areas for the Annual Housing Survey
K. P. Nelson, U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development

A Note on Appropriate Error Measures in Population Estimation
C. D. Palit and P. R. Voss, University of Wisconsin and B.D. Kale and H.C. Krebs, State of Wisconsin

Discussant: S. H. Murdock, Texas A&M University

Session F4 Government Policies Affecting Population 10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: V. Jeffery Evans, National Institutes of Health

Papers:

Rural Development Policy, Rural Development and Growth in the U.S.

J. M. Wardwell, Washington State University

Population Policies on Limiting Growth in Local Areas of the United States
M. Wrigley, Florida State University

Does Income Inequality Promote Economic Growth? Evidence from the Postwar U.S.
S. J. South and M.A. Fossett, University of Texas at Austin

Session F5 Measuring Social Change 10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: Joel Smith, Duke University

Papers:

Profiling Urban Changes with Census Data: Possibilities and Limitations
H. F. Goldsmith, Mental Health Study Center

Profiling Rural Changes with Census Data: Possibilities and Limitations
J. W. Longest, University of Maryland

The Changing Health Status of Florida's Counties
P. E. Williams, Florida Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services

Recent Demographic Trends among the Low-Income Population on Nonmetropolitan Areas
W. O'Hare, National Social Science and Law Center

Session F6 The Well Being of Infants and Children 10:30 a.m.-noon

Chair: Christiane Hale, University of Alabama in Birmingham

Papers:

A Closer Examination of Anglo/Spanish Surname Infant Mortality Differentials
E. Powell-Griner, University of Texas at Austin

Differentials in Planning Status of Last Live Births between Mexican Americans and Anglos
C. W. Warren, J. C. Smith, and R. RoCHAT, Centers for Disease Control

Child-Spacing and the Intellectual Development of Children Ages 6-11
L. C. Steelman, Emory University

Discussant: W. Baldwin, National Institutes of Health

Session F7 Luncheon Roundtable Discussions 12:15-1:45 p.m.

Topic

New Directions for DEMOGRAPHY
Demography for Nondemographers

Demography and Marketing Research
Demography and Occupational and Environmental Hazards

New Directions for Fertility Research

Discussion Leader

Omer R. Galle, University of Texas
Cheryl A. Russell, AMERICAN DEMOGRAPHICS
Mary Kay Healy, Donnelly Marketing
Clifford H. Patrick, Social Security Administration

Wendy H. Baldwin, National Institutes of Health

Dec

Jan

Feb

March

April

Johnson

etc

Chadwick

Chg

etc

Session F8 Concepts and Models
2:00-3:30 p.m.

Chair: Philip Kuhn, University of Arkansas

Papers:

Trends in the Timing and Duration of the "Empty Nest"
Stage of the Family Life Cycle

J. A. Sweet, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Individual and Contextual Social Status: Contribution to Psychological Well-Being

L. C. Gray, B. B. Livieratos, H. F. Goldsmith and H. J. Dupuy,
Mental Health Study Center

Migration and the Risk of Mental Disorder: An Application of the Conditional Binomial Risk Model

D. J. Jackson, Mental Health Study Center; D. L. Tweed, University of Maryland; and N. W. Rives, University of Delaware

Immigration and the Stable Population Model

T. J. Espenshade, The Urban Institute and L. F. Bouvier, Population Reference Bureau

Models of Declining Mortality

S. Mitra, Emory University

Session F9 Rethinking Mobility and Migration
2:00-3:30 p.m.

Chair: Jeanne C. Biggar, University of Virginia

Papers:

Movement to Opportunities: Are All Migrants the Same?

R. H. Freymeyer, Gettysburg College and P. N. Ritchey,
University of Cincinnati

Linking Local Mobility Rates to Migration Rates: Repeat
Movers and Place Effects

J. L. Goodman, The Urban Institute

Research on Residential Displacement: A Review and an Agenda

B. A. Lee, Vanderbilt University

Return Migration and Origin-Destination Linkages of Recent Mississippi In-Migrants

R. W. Snow, Mississippi State University and C. C. Roseman,
University of Illinois

Session F10 Techniques for Small Area Estimates and Studies 2:00-3:30 p.m.

Chair: William J. Serow, Florida State University

Papers:

Estimating Population from Housing Units: A Preliminary Evaluation Using 1980 Census Data

A. S. Gates, New Jersey Department of Labor and Industry

The Housing Unit Method of Local Population Estimation:
Further Evidence

S. K. Smith and M. Mandell, University of Florida and B.B.
Lewis, Atlanta Regional Commission

The Effect of Race of Interviewers on Response Rates in the 1978 Neighborhood Survey, Montgomery, Alabama

J. Waldrop, City of Montgomery

Discussant: Michael A. Spar, University of Virginia

no show

