SOUTHERN DEMOGRAPHIC ASSOCIATION

2013 Annual Meeting

Renaissance Montgomery Hotel & Spa
at the Convention Center
Montgomery, Alabama
Wednesday, October 23, 2013 - Friday, October 25, 2013
From the Civil War to Civil Rights, this capital city has changed the world. But today there's even more to discover. From exquisite local cuisine, to a walkable downtown entertainment district to a vibrant riverfront park, Montgomery is capital cool.

Nowhere else in America can you stand in the footsteps of Jefferson Davis, Rosa Parks, Martin Luther King, Jr. and thousands who marched for equality and the right to vote—all on the same street!

Riverfront Park will take your mind off of your troubles, whether you take a dinner cruise on the riverboat, catch a Montgomery Biscuits baseball game or enjoy one of the many festivals or concerts at the amphitheater.

In Montgomery, award winning chefs prepare dishes from fresh ingredients sourced just blocks away at an urban farm. Take your locally brewed craft beer with you as you discover the next hot spot. Hear that tune? The Grammy nominated voice singing it plays here every week.

Montgomery is the charming southern town you've always wanted to experience with the convenience and fun of a new south city. For more information and to get your FREE visitor guide call 1-800-240-9452 or go to www.visitingmontgomery.com.
